

Hell on High Seas: Amazing True Stories of Survival Against the Odds (Paperback)

By Rob Mundle

HarperCollins Publishers (Australia) Pty Ltd, Australia, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 130 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Eclectic collection of disaster at sea stories - brilliantly written - gripping and entertaining Lindsay Eaton, ROB MUNDLE IS A MASTER OF THE MARITIME NARRATIVE Sunday Age This bestselling maritime classic chronicles some of the most remarkable stories of survival and daring that the world's oceans have hosted over the past half century. There are the bizarre, unbelievable accounts of people who went missing and were given up for dead, like the five Mexican fishermen who went to sea for a three-day shark-fishing trip and then vanished, only for three of them to miraculously reappear, apparition-like, nine months later. And there are the incredible survival stories, such as Maurice and Maralyn Bailey, who spent 117 days adrift in a rubber dinghy in the Pacific after their yacht was sunk by a whale, and the extraordinary tales of people risking everything to break world records - such as Kay Cottee, the first woman to sail non-stop and unassisted around the world, and Ken Warby, the fastest man on water. Hell on High Seas is awash with amazing feats of...
