Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Latin America: The Land of Opportunity; A Reprint of Official Reports and Special Articles The report, however, does not trespass on their specific field nor expect to compete with them in figures of trade exchange, country by country, or in a statement of articles that can be bought or sold. It rather discusses other phases of our commercial, social, and general association as these affect the expansion or contraction of our commerce and prestige. We may go on writing about trade opportunities until doomsday, but, if we do not get at the bottom of our relationship with Latin Americans, we will never make the conquest of their markets and affections - an absolutely necessary combination for permanent good - which is the goal of our effort. There are, of course, many North Americans doing business with or in Latin America to whom what is written in this report is not Normal School, City Of Mexico, Mexico. In 1885 the Mexican Congress appropriated 100, 000 pesos to found a normal school in the capital of the Republic. The course of study covers a period of four years. A normal school for girls was established in 1890. new. Most of our diplomatic and consular representatives are also aware of the facts stated, but the great majority of our people are unfamiliar with the true situation and it is to them that this discussion is directed. Latin America Moving Rapidly Forward. Many of our sister republics are now making a progress that challenges the attention and respect of the world. Some of them are going forward with such splendid energy that they are running a close race with...
