Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Cranbrook Tales From the fog, smoke, crowd and ceaseless hum of London I flee southward to the beautiful land where spring in all her gentleness and beauty is blessing the Garden of Old England and covering it with glory. Over the road where princes, kings and queens have traveled to the accompaniment of the clanging armor of attendants and guards, in the days when horses and men floundered in the muddy roads, stumbled over hidden roots and stones, on to the gates of Penshurst, to be greeted within those ancient castle walls by the earls and ladies of Leicester. On still further, winding my way over hill and dale, till the wells of Tunbridge slake my thirst in the precincts of the venerable Pantiles, so old that the origin of the inns and other buildings is lost in the memory of the days of ancient grandfathers. I rest and dream under the same roof which gave shelter to England's greatest queen as a little girl, and from the same old windows I look out...
