Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Importance of the Ministerial Office: A Sermon Preached in the Independent or Congregational Church, of Charleston, S. C. January 3, 1821, at the Ordination of the Rev. Messrs. Raynolds Bascom, Joseph Brown, Charles B. Storrs, Epaphras Goodman, and Elipha White; As Evangelists To The Congregational Missionary Society, of South-Carolina, and The Young Men s Missionary Society of South-Carolina. Brethren, The Congregational Association, in ordaining the Missionaries whom you have employed to preach the everlasting gospel in the destitute regions of our country, have performed a duty, in the discharge of which they felt much pleasure, in the prospect of seeing the walls of Zion strengthened, and her borders enlarged. They sincerely congratulate you on your instrumentality in thus promoting the interests of evangelical religion. They hope you will be enabled to go on, devising liberal things, and that by every effort of your liberality your hands will grow stronger and stronger, in the good work of evangelizing those who are living without God in the world. While the glory of God is your ultimate aim, and the happiness of immortal souls the object of your unwearied pursuit, we are confident in the Lord, that success will be the reward of your benevolent exertions. Let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. With the humble hope of rendering some service to the great cause, in which you are engaged, the following Sermon and Charge are submitted to publication, and offered to your patronage and disposal, by your servants, in the gospel of Christ, The Author. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of...
