Speeches Delivered at the Eighteenth Ward Republican Festival: In Commemoration of the Birth of Washington The Eighteen Ward Republican Association commemorated the birth of Washington by a public festival at the Gramercy Park House, on Wednesday evening, February 22d, 1860. At 8 o'clock, the members of the Association and the invited guests proceeded to the dining saloon, where a sumptuous repast was provided. Elliot C. Cowdin, Esq., Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, presided, while Job L. Black, Esq., President of the Association, and Wm. K. Strong, Esq., occupied seats at the head of the tables on either side of the President, supported at the opposite ends by Messrs. James M. Cross, Jas. M. Thomson, and J. Austin Stevens, Jr. Rev. Dr. Bellows, in a very appropriate prayer, invoked the Divine blessing upon the assemblage and upon the cause of liberty; after which, the company partook of the bountiful provision that had been made for the gratification of their alimentive desires. Having spent an agreeable hour in discoursing the bill of...

Reviews

This pdf is worth buying. It is actually written in basic words and not confusing. It's been printed in a remarkably basic way in fact it is merely following. I finished reading this publication through which really altered me, affect the way I really believe.

A very amazing publication with perfect and lucid information. We have read through and that I am certain that I will planning to study once more yet again in the future. You will not really feel monotony at anytime of the time (that's what catalogues are for about should you question me).
