Memoranda on the Midsummer Night's Dream is a work detailing historical information about one of Shakespeare's most famous plays. James Orchard Halliwell-Phillips was born on 21st June 1820, in London, England. Halliwell-Phillips was privately educated at Jesus College, Cambridge, where he became intensely interested in the subject of antiquarian English literature. He began publishing works in the field at a very young age, including editing Sir John Mandeville's Travels (1839), and writing an Account of the European Manuscripts in the Chetham Library (1842). His love of literature was accompanied by a passion for all things Shakespearian, producing several publications on The Bard and his works, such as Life of Shakespeare (1848), Curiosities of Modern Shakespeare Criticism (1853), and The Last Days of William Shakespeare (1863). He also took a key role in protecting the historical Shakespearian sites in Stratford-Upon-Avon, Shakespeare's town of birth.
