Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Home and Its Relation to the World The purpose of the present little book, the first of a series of elementary school geographies, is two-fold. It undertakes in the first place to familiarize the child with his environment and to show how his life is affected by it. In the second place it takes him over the World, not a world made up of facts to be memorized, but one filled with strange and interesting people with whom he has more or less to do. It is not the purpose of the book to teach California but rather the home in California, and its relation to other homes scattered over the wide world. As a result of this method the Home is oriented and the pupil led to acquire those simple but fundamental ideas absolutely essential to the real grasp of advanced geography. The first and second books of the New Progressive Geographies emphasize Home Geography because, in the author s opinion, this is the only approach to World Geography which can give the...
