A good highway, paralleling the Oregon Short Line, runs through Beaverhead county, giving connection with Salt Lake and points west and also with Montana points further north. Education--The State Normal College, the only school of its kind in Montana, is situated at Dillon. It has an enrollment upwards of 500. The county high school at Dillon is accredited for a four-year term. There are good rural schools in the county. Tourist Attractions--Besides unrivaled hunting and fishing in the mountainous districts, relics of the early days in Montana when the vigilantes battled with the road agents and when the gulches poured out their golden treasures are to be found in this county, and that the days of the olden west when the cowboys were in their glory hav(e not passed is to be evidenced on the big ranches in the Big Hole basin. Cities and Towns--Dillon, the county seat, is a modern, up-to-date bustling little city and the principal community in the county. It is an important trading center, for parts of Idaho as well as for Beaverhead county. Wisdom and Jackson are the chief trading centers in the Big Hole valley. Special Opportunities--Further development of the agricultural resources of the county, and establishment of herds of pure-bred cattle and sheep, the market herds of the county affording a ready outlet for all breeding animals. Climatological--The mean temperature and precipitation at Dillon are given by the U. S. Weather Bureau as follows: Jan....
