The Great Truth that Jesus Christ, our Redeemer, is truly God, invested by the Father with universal power in heaven and on earth. II. The fact that He provided for his saints an abode in North America, far removed from the deadly hate and persecution of the Romish Church in the Old World; where they have enjoyed civil and religious liberty, and worshipped God undisturbed, and in conformity to the prescriptions of his own inspired word. III. By the reviving influence of the Holy Spirit, shed down by Jesus Christ, his saints have greatly multiplied. IV. His saints, by spreading abroad the influence of religious truth and sound morality, and by establishing Bible and Missionary Societies, and various benevolent and charitable institutions, have exerted a salutary influence on the affairs of the nation, and greatly benefited foreigners who have come here to participate in, the blessings of our happy country.
