

A Rose in Bloom (Paperback)

By Bridgette Rose

Booksurge Publishing, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Poetry should remind the reader that words are magic, and that this magic can take us on a memorable voyage through the world of emotions. Such is the case with the poetry of Rosalie Cooper. In A Rose In Bloom, this talented poet--a victim of MST (Military Sexual Trauma) and domestic violence who pulled herself from the quagmire of being a victim--reveals the very inner strength that moved her life forward. In this moving poetry, Cooper reveals the determination and hope that shifted her from thoughts of suicide to a path toward survival and a promising life. Included in A Rose In Bloom are poems of pain and joy, as well as an honest look into the angst and awareness of one woman s journey toward emotional health. The poetry is both dark and light, ominous and hopeful, each phrase reflecting one woman s wish to live a life of health and freedom, and expressed in a compelling and sensitive style. Readers who are following their own quests toward well-being and joy will find these poems...
